

February 22, 1900

THE LAST SAD RITES.

All that was mortal of the late Mrs. J. D. Phillips, whose demise was chronicled last week, was laid to rest in Union cemetery Sunday afternoon. The funeral occurred from the M. E. church of this city, where the friends and neighbors of her youth had gathered to pay their last tribute to the memory of one whom they loved and respected. Rev. Deeble, of Bath, conducted the funeral services.

Deceased was twenty-four years of age and leaves a husband and two children to mourn the loss of a model wife and mother. She was a daughter of Adam Reamann, of James, and came to this county with her parents from Wisconsin in an early day. On December 25th, 1894, she was married to J. D. Phillips of this city, and last fall the family moved to Braddock, N. D. Her death was the result of a complication of ailments following a severe attack of rheumatism.